Security Expo Sydney Australia

August 24 - 26th in Sydney, Australia.

This Expo provides attendees the opportunity to speak directly with experienced surveillance and security equipment supplieres. You'll be able to acquire current product information and specifications of trusted and recognized brands. You'll also be given the chance to interact and use products and participate in seminars and industry related workshops led by industry leaders. Network with peers in Australia, New Zealand and neighboring countries.